

COVID-19 Talent Priorities

Agile leaders are pivoting to keep up with rapidly changing workforce priorities in the face of COVID-19 and economic uncertainty.

Here are 5 critical priorities that LiveHire is rapidly enabling for organisations.

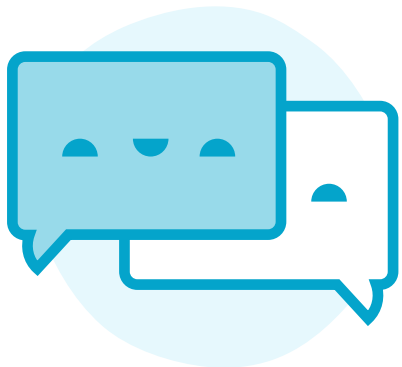

1. Rapid Scale-Up

Essential industries are experiencing acute staff shortages and require rapid support to efficiently source, screen and hire thousands of candidates.

2. Direct Sourcing

HR and Procurement teams are looking to reduce spend on contingent workforce programs whilst maintaining productivity and workforce flexibility.

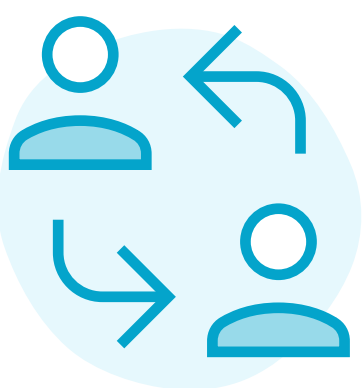

3. Emergency Communications

Many organisations are looking for ways to rapidly communicate critical information to employees via multiple channels. (SMS, email, etc.)

4. Redeployment

Leadership teams need visibility over existing workforce skills to effectively redeploy employees across their organisation or in partnership with essential industries.

5. Outplacement

With rising unemployment, innovative leaders are planning to maintain contact with departing staff and offer solutions to accelerate their job search.

Stay agile. Emerge stronger.
